Animosity of Mexicans Toward Being Dispelled — Command of Army to Begin Investigation of Increased Cost of Living.

VEBA CRUZ, Mexico, June 6. —(Associated Press by Pederal Wireless)—Since the occupation of Vora Crus by the American forces, the latter have been taking every stop possible to better living, health and sanitary conditions in this city and surrounding territory.

Brigadier General Frederick Functon, who is in command of the land forces, is particularly active in this direction. His latent move was the announcement yesterday of his intention to appeint a commission to investigate the increased cost of living in Maxico since the American occupation of this cort.

The residents of this city and surrounding country-have a much higher opinion of the American people since the advent of the military forces.

The gentlemanly conduct of the suldiers has won the respect and admiration of many Mexicans who previously entertained a most antagonistic attitude towards the land of the Stars and Stripes.
